20 The Piazza, Lancaster, LA1 3FJ

10th October 2025

Winner of the UK's
Best Estate Agent

Data you can rely on:

Set within the prestigious Standen Park development, The Piazza offers elegant living in one of Lancaster’s most desirable settings. Surrounded by landscaped grounds, fountains, and tree-lined walkways, it combines peace and privacy with convenience — just moments from the city centre, M6, and excellent local schools including both Grammar Schools.

This freehold four-bedroom townhouse spans three floors, offering flexible, well-balanced accommodation. The ground floor features a bright hallway, WC, utility, and an open-plan kitchen diner with French doors to the enclosed garden. The first floor includes a spacious living room with sash-style windows and a fourth bedroom/home office. Upstairs are three further bedrooms, including a main with fitted wardrobes and en-suite, plus a modern family bathroom. Outside, the low-maintenance garden leads to rear parking and a private car port.

Restrictive covenants

Found

This property has restrictive covenants

Restrictive covenants are legally binding agreements written into a property's deed that limit what can be done with the property.

Why it's important

Usage Limitations

They may restrict alterations, land use, or activities (e.g. no extensions, specific construction materials).

Community Consistency

Covenants help maintain a uniform look and feel in a community, which can protect property values.

Obligations and Compliance

It's crucial to understand any existing covenants before buying, as breach can lead to legal action.

While we can't provide specific details about restrictive covenants without the purchase of the title deeds, we can let you know if they exist. For more information on how to obtain the title deeds, please feel free to reach out to your agent, who will be happy to assist you.

Rights of way

There has been no rights of way found on the plot of this property

Footpaths

These paths are for pedestrians, which means they can be used by people walking or running. They are also accessible to those using mobility scooters or powered wheelchairs.

Bridleways

Along with walking, these paths are open to horse riders and cyclists. Additionally, mobility scooters and powered wheelchairs can be used here. No motor vehicles are allowed.

Restricted Byways

These routes are more versatile, allowing for any form of transport as long as it isn't powered by a motor. This includes walking, cycling, horse riding, and using mobility scooters or powered wheelchairs.

Byways Open to All Traffic (BOATs)

These paths are available to all forms of transport, including motor vehicles. However, despite allowing cars and other vehicles, they are primarily used by pedestrians, cyclists, and horse riders.

For specific details about the rights of way on this property, it may be beneficial to consult local government websites or property deeds, which can provide precise information on locations and restrictions.
