6 Bowland View, Glasson Dock, Lancaster, LA2 0DH

4th November 2025

Winner of the UK's Best Estate Agent

Data you can rely on:

Bowland View is a three-bedroom mid-terrace home in a peaceful cul-de-sac at the heart of Glasson Dock – a coastal village known for its marina, scenic walks, and friendly community. The village offers a relaxed pace of life with local favourites such as the Glasson Smokehouse, Dalton Arms, and the marina café nearby. Surrounded by countryside and coastline, residents enjoy walking and cycling routes along the Lancaster Canal and Lune Estuary, plus a regular bus service to Lancaster.

The home offers great potential for modernisation, featuring a welcoming hallway, spacious lounge with a coal fire and garden views, and a full-depth kitchen diner with a second fireplace. Upstairs are three good-sized bedrooms, a family bathroom, and separate WC. Outside, the large rear garden includes outbuildings offering scope for conversion or extension. With no current gas supply, heating would need installing, but this is a superb opportunity to create a lovely family home in a charming coastal set

Restrictive covenants

No covenants

This property does not have any restrictive covenants

Restrictive covenants are legally binding agreements written into a property's deed that limit what can be done with the property.

Why it's important

Usage Limitations

They may restrict alterations, land use, or activities (e.g. no extensions, specific construction materials).

Community Consistency

Covenants help maintain a uniform look and feel in a community, which can protect property values.

Obligations and Compliance

It's crucial to understand any existing covenants before buying, as breach can lead to legal action.

While we can't provide specific details about restrictive covenants without the purchase of the title deeds, we can let you know if they exist. For more information on how to obtain the title deeds, please feel free to reach out to your agent, who will be happy to assist you.

Rights of way

There has been no rights of way found on the plot of this property

Footpaths

These paths are for pedestrians, which means they can be used by people walking or running. They are also accessible to those using mobility scooters or powered wheelchairs.

Bridleways

Along with walking, these paths are open to horse riders and cyclists. Additionally, mobility scooters and powered wheelchairs can be used here. No motor vehicles are allowed.

Restricted Byways

These routes are more versatile, allowing for any form of transport as long as it isn't powered by a motor. This includes walking, cycling, horse riding, and using mobility scooters or powered wheelchairs.

Byways Open to All Traffic (BOATs)

These paths are available to all forms of transport, including motor vehicles. However, despite allowing cars and other vehicles, they are primarily used by pedestrians, cyclists, and horse riders.

For specific details about the rights of way on this property, it may be beneficial to consult local government websites or property deeds, which can provide precise information on locations and restrictions.

HM Land Registry

National park
