Introduction

Bay Horse Drive is tucked away in a quiet cul-de-sac in South Lancaster, with little passing traffic and shops, supermarkets and takeaways close by. Lancaster city centre is a short drive or cycle away, with well-regarded schools nearby and easy access to the M6 via the Bay Gateway. Walks around Williamson Park and the canal are within easy reach, and the elevated position gives a rear outlook across towards Warton and open skies for sunsets.

This detached four-bedroom home offers balanced space over two floors. A 2018 driveway provides parking for two and leads to a single garage (currently used as a workshop). Inside is a bright hall with storage and a WC, a full-depth lounge, and an open-plan kitchen-diner with blue units, granite-effect worktops and tiled splashback. Upstairs are two doubles and two singles, with the rear double enjoying the view. Outside is a private rear garden with lawn, mature planting and a central pond, not overlooked from behind.
