

Property Report

28 Brendjean Road, Morecambe, LA4 5SE

18th February 2026

Winner of the UK's
Best Estate Agent

Data you can rely on:

Brendjean Road is a well-established part of Morecambe, popular with families thanks to Lancaster Road Primary School, local shops and bus routes close by. Morecambe town centre and the promenade are a short drive away for coastal walks and cafés, with straightforward links to Lancaster and the M6.

This three-bedroom semi has two reception rooms and an easy flow. The bright front lounge features an electric fireplace and updated flooring, opening through to a dining room with French doors to the garden. A modern shaker-style kitchen sits to the rear, with a small extension adding a downstairs WC and separate utility area. Upstairs are three well-presented bedrooms and a contemporary bathroom. Outside, the east-facing garden widens towards the rear and feels private, backing onto the school grounds, with raised decking, lawn, patio and a substantial side-built shed for storage.

Restrictive covenants

Found

This property has restrictive covenants

Restrictive covenants are legally binding agreements written into a property's deed that limit what can be done with the property.

Why it's important

Usage Limitations

They may restrict alterations, land use, or activities (e.g. no extensions, specific construction materials).

Community Consistency

Covenants help maintain a uniform look and feel in a community, which can protect property values.

Obligations and Compliance

It's crucial to understand any existing covenants before buying, as breach can lead to legal action.

While we can't provide specific details about restrictive covenants without the purchase of the title deeds, we can let you know if they exist. For more information on how to obtain the title deeds, please feel free to reach out to your agent, who will be happy to assist you.

Rights of way

There has been no rights of way found on the plot of this property

Footpaths

These paths are for pedestrians, which means they can be used by people walking or running. They are also accessible to those using mobility scooters or powered wheelchairs.

Bridleways

Along with walking, these paths are open to horse riders and cyclists. Additionally, mobility scooters and powered wheelchairs can be used here. No motor vehicles are allowed.

Restricted Byways

These routes are more versatile, allowing for any form of transport as long as it isn't powered by a motor. This includes walking, cycling, horse riding, and using mobility scooters or powered wheelchairs.

Byways Open to All Traffic (BOATs)

These paths are available to all forms of transport, including motor vehicles. However, despite allowing cars and other vehicles, they are primarily used by pedestrians, cyclists, and horse riders.

For specific details about the rights of way on this property, it may be beneficial to consult local government websites or property deeds, which can provide precise information on locations and restrictions.
