

Property Report

24 Ulster Road, Lancaster, LA1 4AH

11th May 2026

Winner of the UK's
Best Estate Agent

Data you can rely on:

Bowerham is one of Lancaster's most popular residential areas, offering a strong community feel with local shops, cafés, schools, Lancaster Royal Infirmary, Lancaster University and the city centre all within easy reach. Williamson Park is nearby, with green space and views towards Morecambe Bay.

This bay-fronted mid-terrace on Ulster Road offers spacious, well-balanced accommodation. There is a bright front lounge, rear dining room overlooking the garden, and a galley kitchen with direct garden access. Upstairs are two double bedrooms, a flexible single bedroom and a recently updated shower room. Outside, the south-east facing garden offers seating space and lawn, while the larger-than-average garage provides secure parking, storage or workshop potential.

Restrictive covenants

Found

This property has restrictive covenants

Restrictive covenants are legally binding agreements written into a property's deed that limit what can be done with the property.

Why it's important

Usage Limitations

They may restrict alterations, land use, or activities (e.g. no extensions, specific construction materials).

Community Consistency

Covenants help maintain a uniform look and feel in a community, which can protect property values.

Obligations and Compliance

It's crucial to understand any existing covenants before buying, as breach can lead to legal action.

While we can't provide specific details about restrictive covenants without the purchase of the title deeds, we can let you know if they exist. For more information on how to obtain the title deeds, please feel free to reach out to your agent, who will be happy to assist you.

Rights of way

There has been no rights of way found on the plot of this property

Footpaths

These paths are for pedestrians, which means they can be used by people walking or running. They are also accessible to those using mobility scooters or powered wheelchairs.

Bridleways

Along with walking, these paths are open to horse riders and cyclists. Additionally, mobility scooters and powered wheelchairs can be used here. No motor vehicles are allowed.

Restricted Byways

These routes are more versatile, allowing for any form of transport as long as it isn't powered by a motor. This includes walking, cycling, horse riding, and using mobility scooters or powered wheelchairs.

Byways Open to All Traffic (BOATs)

These paths are available to all forms of transport, including motor vehicles. However, despite allowing cars and other vehicles, they are primarily used by pedestrians, cyclists, and horse riders.

For specific details about the rights of way on this property, it may be beneficial to consult local government websites or property deeds, which can provide precise information on locations and restrictions.

HM Land Registry

🏠 National park

No restrictions found

This property is not within a national park

A national park is a protected area recognized for its natural beauty, wildlife, and cultural heritage.

💡 Why it's important

Restrictions

There are strict planning regulations to ensure preservation. Building and development are highly controlled.

Natural Beauty

Properties offer scenic surroundings and abundant recreational opportunities, adding to their appeal.

Value Implications

While restrictions may limit development, the environment can enhance property desirability and value.

For more information and specific details on any potential restrictions please speak to your agent or the local authority.

🛡️ Conservation area

No restrictions found

This property is not within a conservation area

A conservation area is a region designated for its special architectural or historical value. It is protected to maintain its unique character.

💡 Why it's important

Preservation

These areas maintain historical and architectural charm, potentially enhancing property values.

Restrictions

Additional planning permissions and controls apply, limiting changes like exterior alterations or tree removals.

Community and Environment

They contribute to community aesthetics and environmental health.

For more information and specific details on any potential restrictions please speak to your agent or the local authority.

Greenbelt land

No restrictions found

This property is not on Greenbelt land

Greenbelt land is a protected area designated to prevent urban sprawl and preserve natural landscapes.

Why it's important

Restrictions

Strict regulations limit new developments and property modifications, often requiring special permissions.

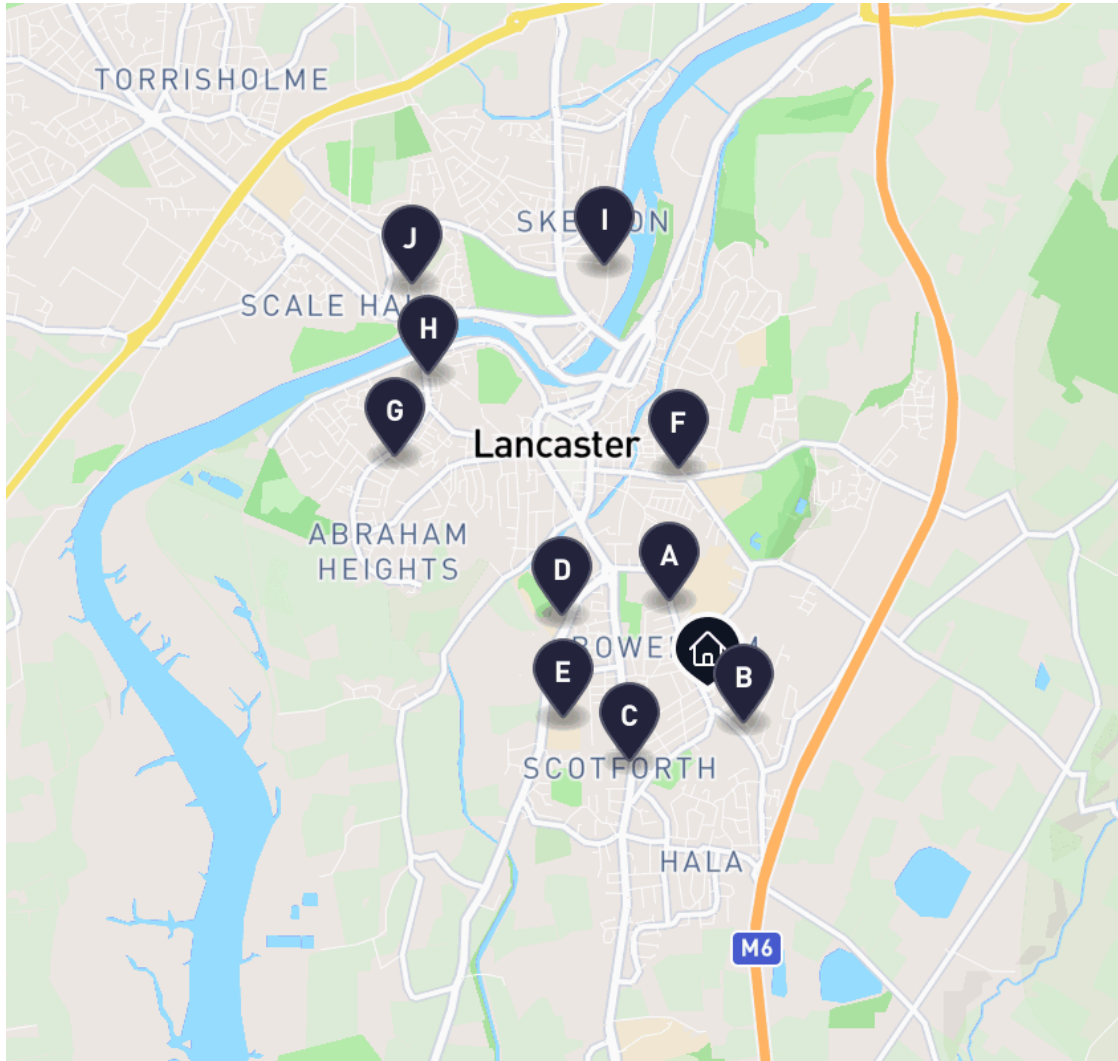

Environmental Appeal

Offers scenic natural surroundings, providing a tranquil atmosphere that enhances property desirability.

Value Implications

Properties in greenbelt areas tend to be more valuable due to limited availability and appealing settings, though restrictions could affect potential alterations.

For more information and specific details on any potential restrictions please speak to your agent or the local authority.
