Set in a tucked-away position within the popular Lune Valley village of Caton, this spacious four-bedroom semi-detached dormer bungalow is close to local shops, schools, bus services and countryside walks, with Lancaster and the M6 easily accessible.

Inside, the accommodation includes a flexible front reception room/home office, generous lounge opening into a dining area with patio doors to the garden, a well-proportioned kitchen and a four-piece family bathroom. Upstairs are four bedrooms and a separate WC, with some restricted head height reflecting the dormer design.

Outside, a driveway provides parking for several vehicles and leads to an exceptionally large detached garage with utility room, external WC and insulated loft storage. The private landscaped rear garden features paved seating areas, raised beds and established planting, with a small stream/old mill race beyond the rear boundary.
