Situated on Railway Street, beside the Royal Lancaster Infirmary, this traditional three-bedroom stone-built mid-terrace offers excellent renovation potential. Lancaster city centre, the canal, local amenities and transport links are all within easy reach, with residents' permit parking available.

The property features a bay-fronted lounge, separate dining room, galley kitchen and ground-floor bathroom. Upstairs are three bedrooms, including one with an en-suite shower room. Period features include high ceilings, decorative fireplaces and timber flooring.

Requiring extensive refurbishment and remedial works, including attention to areas of historic water ingress affecting the kitchen and bathroom ceilings, the property offers an opportunity to create a home tailored to individual tastes. Benefiting from gas central heating, double glazing and no onward chain, it could appeal to experienced renovators, investors or buyers seeking a project in a convenient Lancaster location.
